QSFT Scholarship Terms and Conditions

General

The Queensland School of Film and Television (QSFT) is offering one (1) 12 months scholarship for the Certificate III in Screen & Media: High School Program, starting Semester 1, 2023.

The scholarship is for a 12 month period (2 semesters). The scholarship can not be transferred or extended. If the student is unable to complete the program within 12 months and wishes to complete the Certificate past the 12 month period, the student will be liable to reimburse the School for the full course tuition fee.

The Scholarship is not redeemable for cash.

Eligibility

To be eligible you need to:

- Received a Letter of Offer for the course
- Completed year 10 study.
- Be an Australian Citizen/resident.
- Provide Expression of Interest (up to 300 words).
- Undertaken media related subjects.

Applications for the scholarship will only be accepted if you have met all the above criteria.

Application Process

The QSFT School Board will assess all applications against certain criteria.

Criteria will be based on:

- Met eligibility requirements.
- Quality of Portfolio (Optional BUT recommended).
- Passion for film and television.
- Goals.
- Career objectives.

After the first stage of assessment, applicants will be contacted via mail the outcome of their application. Applicants who passed the first stage will be invited to attend an interview.

Following the interview process, the School Board will make a final assessment. The scholarship will be granted to the Applicant deemed (by the board) most suitable. The School Board's decision is final.

In the event the selected student is unable to accept the scholarship, the School Board will offer the scholarship to another applicant where applicable.

Applicants will be notified by mail about the progress of their application.

Academic performance

The scholarship position is on-going and performance based. Throughout the course the student needs to:

- Attend at least 80% of classes.
- Submit assessment on time in full.
- 80% pass rate (assessment).
- Participate in th School events as required
- Provide minimum 2 x showreel during the course of study
- Follow QSFT policies and procedures (e.g. Code of Conduct)

If the student fails to meet the above, they will need to meet with QSFT representatives to discuss performance and come to solutions. If no solution is reached or the student continues to perform poorly, QSFT has the right to withdraw the scholarship at any time.

At the beginning of each semester the student will need to meet with QSFT representatives to discuss the previous semester's performance.

If a student withdraws their enrollment during the 12 month period, the remaining time of the scholarship will be forfeited at the discretion of the School Board.

Termination

In the event that these terms and conditions are not adhered to, the QSFT School Board has the right to withdraw the Scholarship at anytime.

To retain your scholarship, you must:

- Maintain enrolment.
- Maintain your performance (attendance & assessment).
- Adhere to QSFT's policies and procedures.
- Adhere to the Scholarship's Terms and Conditions.

Declaration

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the information supplied herein is correct and complete. I acknowledge that the provision of incorrect information or the withholding of any information relating to my application may result in the cancellation by QSFT or the withdrawal of the institution of any place that may be offered and that this withdrawal may take place at any stage during the course I undertake
