VIDEOGRAPHER SCOOPS GONGS FOR PRODUCTION WORK

Michael Cornack

THE next time you see an advertisement video online, there is a chance it has been made by a Logan videographer.

Local Hayden Lowry has started 2016 on the perfect note, taking out an award for his production work.

Mr Lowry, who runs his own company, Vin Image, alongside his sister Amanda, scooped the Gold Award at the 2016 AVA Digital Awards for a promotional video he made for a client.

It caps a stellar period for the former Chisholm Catholic College siblings, after they took out the certificate of distinction for the Videographer Awards and the two-

I try to focus on the feeling of the business

"So it just worked out well for both of us. I always liked the idea of starting from scratch and this was the perfect opportunity."

The Daisy Hill resident said he tried to make his videos stand out.

"Because I had the background in film making and story telling, I got into the business side and took that style with me," he said.
